Carter Bury Tales

Long, long ago, in a school right here, 215 sniveling, immature, stupid, obnoxious, conniving, little freshmen entered these doors.

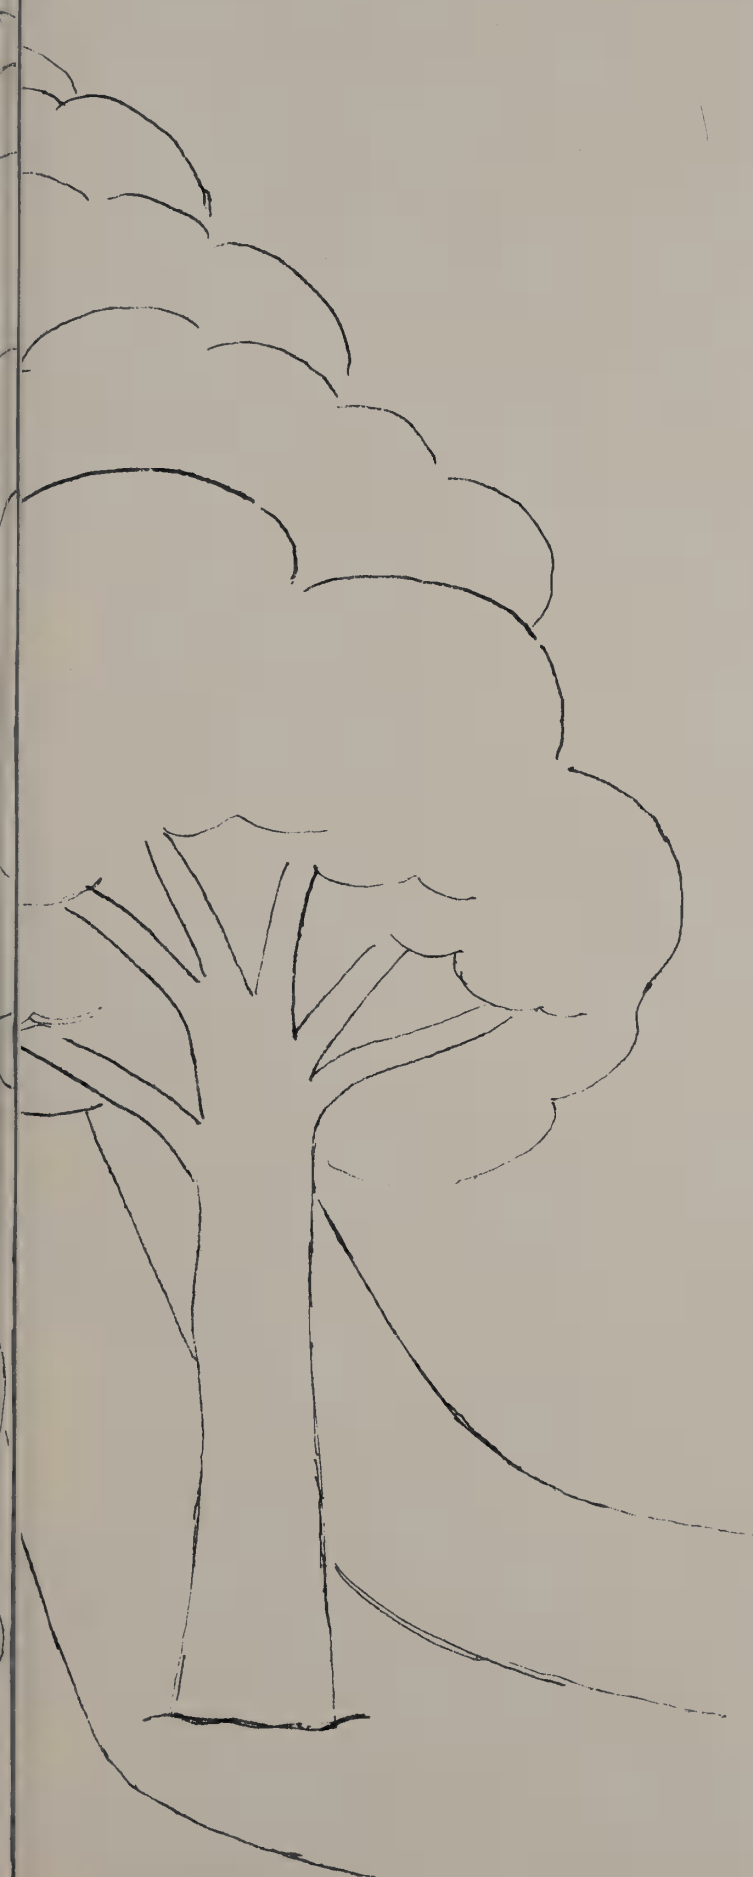

Through many trials, tribulations, and homework assignments, these boys and girls (or most of them) matured into intelligent, athletic, handsome, distinguished MEN and WOMEN.

Under the dynamic leadership of: Jack, Doris, Uncle Tom, the Silver Fox, The Falk, The Colonel (USMC, Ret.), Arthur, Joyce, June, Uncle Charlie, Randall, Steady Eddie, Jess, Charlotte, Harold, James, Mother Hays, Carole, Dorothy, Uncle Grover, David, Mrs. B, Judy, Patricia, Bertha, Gene, Warren, Reggie, James II, Don, Marian, Sue, Krazy Corbett, Margaret, and Wade, we have flowered into responsible adults.

Despite our Yippie friends' attempt to organize a smoke-in, The Colonel's matrix, and Jay's childish pranks, we all have MADE IT!!! (We think . . .) Today we have reached a pinnacle of our still-young SENIOR YEAR!

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '79

Facing Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow

Yesterday we Eagles were facing . . .

- a new school year ahead, all full of promises for making new friends.
- the struggle of gaining popularity from our peers and teachers.
- the troubles that seemed so far away.
- the big task of impressing the Seniors.

Today, we are facing . . .

- only a few more days to seal meaningful relationships with friends.
- the long awaited end of school.
- loss of security.
- the sadness that the closing of this span in life brings.
- the hope that we can live up to our dreams and reach our goals.
- up to ourselves, and perhaps seeing ourselves for what we really are, in hopes of seeing in ourselves something worthwhile.
- the fact that our carefree days are over and work won't be fun any longer.

Tomorrow, we will be facing . . .

- a changing world in which the unchangeable will be left behind.
- the responsibilities growing older brings, whether we mature or not.
- the future with pride because we've come out of Carter Riverside.

UNAI. CH...

Tom Lemmon

This year's dedication goes to a man who is undoubtedly one of the best teachers at our school. His persistence and dedication to his job makes his classes one of the most interesting and educational. Let's at Carter.

Undoubtedly, we are lucky to have a man of his caliber and know-how who greatly increases the knowledge and prominence of our faculty staff. We proudly dedicate the 1979 Eagle to Mr.

Are you and D'yd

Stacy,
I swear I wish I had classes with you this year. You were always a lot of fun. I liked talking to you because you always put me in a good mood. I wish our class had more guys like you in it.
Because next year we are going to need people with a personality like yours to have a fantastic time. Really, I'm glad we at least have one like you. Keep the Carter spirit up so next year we can show this high school
what a good Senior Class is! Keep spreadin' your personality around.
Love ya,
Susan Bazz

To my son Stacy Joe,
 Though we haven't had classes together to this year, I believe managed to sneak in a quick "hello" here and there. I hope to see more of you next year. Be a good boy and don't forget to drink all your milk, eat your spinach, take a bath, brush your teeth, and clean behind your ears.

With love,
 Your mother, Cole
